Coach Hal Henderson points the way toward a Pirates victory.

Pirates Push

The 1966 soccer campaign opened with great expectations for an outstanding season. Led by senior captain Tom Mooney, the team boasted not only a strong array of returning upperclassmen and a number of experienced freshmen but also a new coach--Hal Henderson. However, high hopes were dampened when the season opened with a 4-0 loss to St. Benedict's. But the Pirates came back strong to defeat Ottawa 3-0 and were victorious over Rockhurst for the first time in three years, 2-1. Next the Pirates suffered a 3-2 loss to Tabor in overtime. Team morale rose with a 6-5 overtime victory over Ottawa, only to be buried by St. Benedict's 6-1 two days later. The Pirates trounced Tabor 5-1 for Harvest Festival, but were unable to hold Rockhurst in the season's finale--losing 4-0.

The team finished the season with a 9-5 record overall and 4-4 in the Mo-Kan Collegiate Soccer Conference--establishing one of the finest records in Park history.

Harriers Record Winning Season

The 1966 version of Park Cross Country saw several firsts recorded for the Pirates. The harriers recorded the first winning season since varsity competition. They were also represented for the first time in the national meet by Freshman Steve Puryear. The outstanding runner for Park was Freshman Bill Waters who consistently placed near the top. Returning lettermen Mike Omolecki and Don Ehrett furnished valuable secondary support throughout the season. The team finished up the season with six wins and four losses, and placed fourth in the William Jewell Invitational. We wish to commend Coach Hamilton on this fine record.

Basketball

By combining new freshman talent with the experience of returning lettermen the Roundballers hoped to better the 12-9 record of last year's team. The season started off well with victories over Bethany Nazarene, Richards-Gebaur and the Alumni, only to be halted by a losing streak with three games on the road.

The rest of the season consisted of victories over Graceland, Calvary Bible, and Friends University and several discouraging games lost by less than ten points. Especially well-played games were with Greenville (93-96) and McKendree (81-82).

The team was led by senior Co-captains Bill Perry and Dave Hackathorn. Several team members ranked high in District No. 16 NAIA standings. Freshman Rich Melendez was the top area scorer, averaging 25 points per game. Dave Hackathorn also ranked high in scoring and was one of the tops in assists. Freshman Jim Gillen led in freethrow percentage, while Bill Perry ranked in the top ten for rebounding. The Pirates were considered one of the best offensive teams in the area.

Swimming

The 1966-67 swimming team established itself as one of the best athletic teams in Park College history. The Tankmen completed a fifteen meet schedule without a loss. With the two won at the end of the 65-66 season, the dual meet winning streak stands at seventeen straight.

The Pirate Tankmen were led by Co-captains Warren Thompson and Rick Mitchell. Mitchell was undefeated in the Breaststroke and a consistent winner in the Individual Medley. Thompson was a consistent winner in any Freestyle event. Freshman Russ Carlson also had a fine season by going undefeated in the Backstroke.

Records were established in the Medley Relay (Carlson, Mitchell, Freeman, Thompson), 1000 Free (Thompson), Individual Medley (Mitchell), Diving (Cobb), 100 Free (Thompson), 200 Back (Carlson), 200 Breast (Mitchell).

"But I never even HEARD of the goonse!"

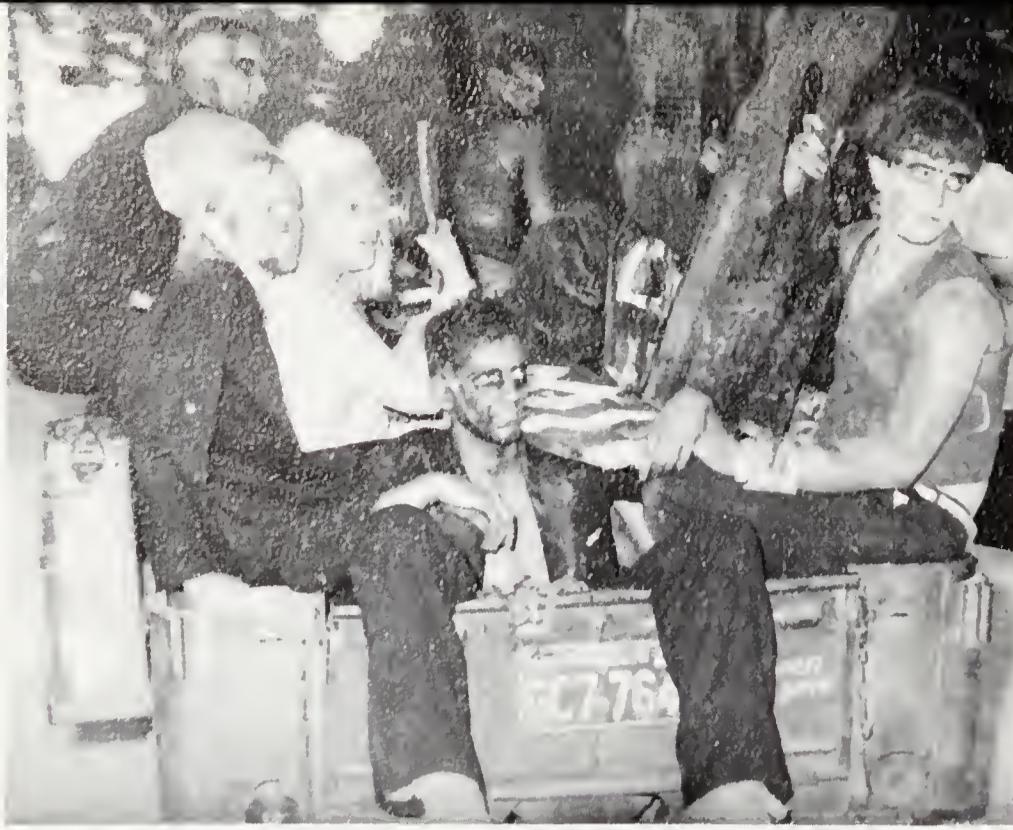

"Whatta ya mean, I got bad breath?"

This year the frosh displayed plenty of spirit when they appeared at Wednesday night dinner dressed to the letter of the law--coat and tie for boys, hose and heels for girls. . .but somehow it wasn't right in the eyes of boondoggled upperclassmen, who urged the rebels to swallow their pride, bounce the goonse, kiss the eel and welcome the paddle.

"A little to the left there, frosh."

"Whatta ya mean, you can't take us downwind?"

"Hey, Syphilis--check out THIS goonse!"

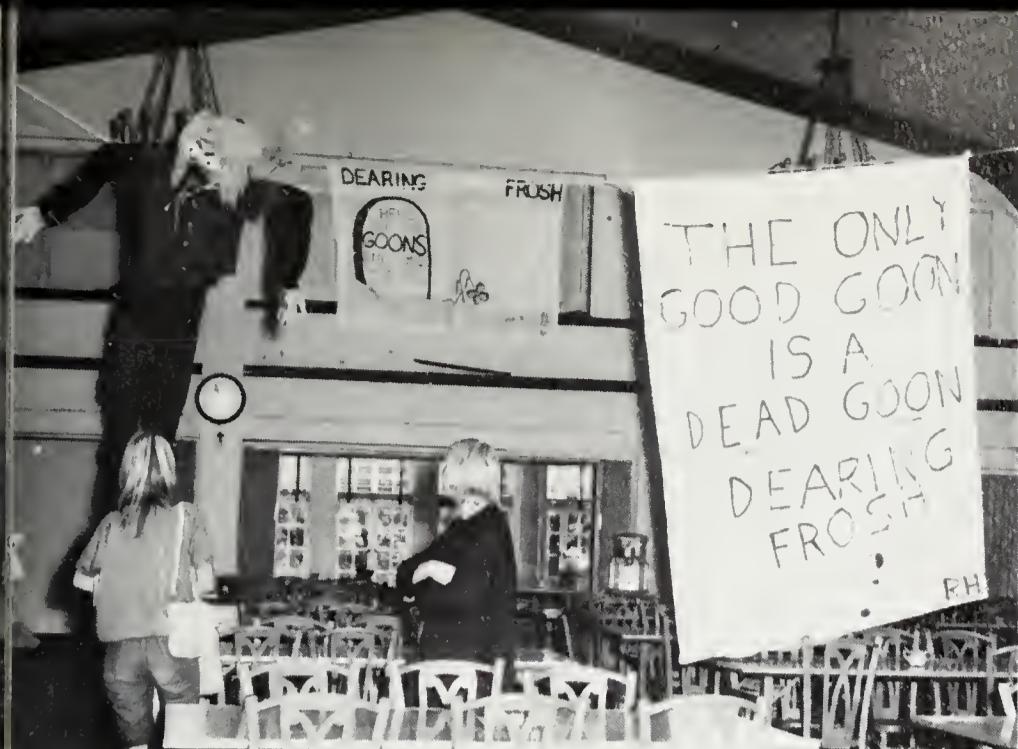

The Black Days

"Hmmm. Now it'll work if I can just hit Flint square on the ---."

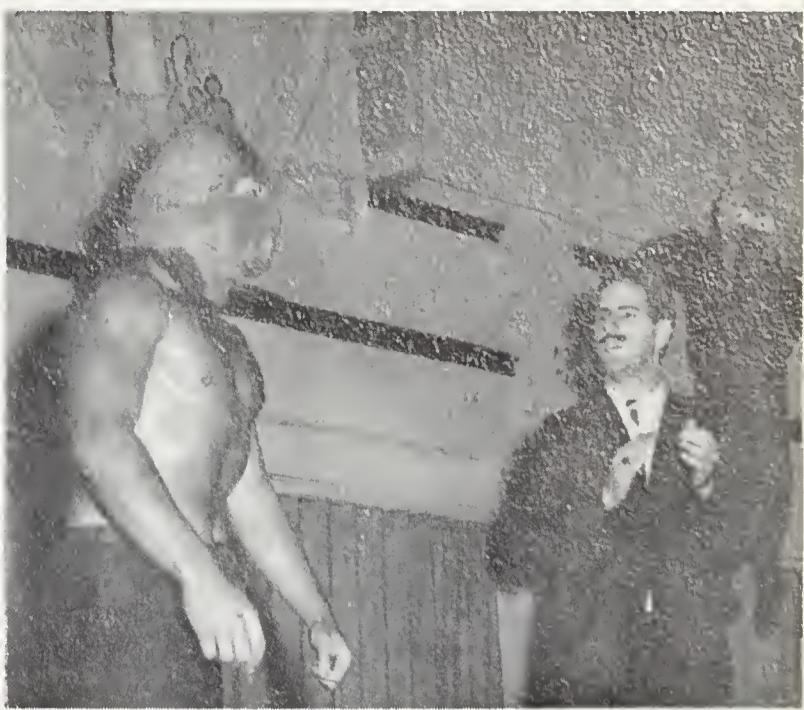

"Sorry, Nympho--from this angle you still look pretty bad."

"Now if I can only catch this "R.H." wise guy, he ought to look pretty good up there."

You'd BETTER applaud, Mr. Prosecutor.

Those rain dances in the Den finally paid off.

At Frosh Court this year Madge Messersmith was declared 101 and Bob McElligott received the "Best Frosh" Award. The chocolate pie prize went to Donna Nichols, and Carol Kearney had to kiss each goon and gooness in recognition for hustling the upperclassmen.

Nickel

A dorm for men, Nickel was built in 1895 using funds contributed by Sunday School children over the country, by means of "shares" which sold at a nickel each.

It's a Nickel tradition to dress up in one's most sophisticated garb at least once a year, so that outsiders will know what really goes on within those red brick walls.

Tom Mooney and Roger Brown (Nickel President) take pleasure in repairing the damage from one of Copley's late-night heckling capers.

Stephens

Living up on the fourth floor of Herr House, Stephens women are comprised of juniors and seniors of high academic standing. In the picture above, Shelley Teale and Kay Ketcham take time out for a cup of coffee.

At the Carnival, the Stephens balloons sold to Bob Ciccone for eleven dollars.

Seated: Jayne Humbert (House Manager), Dianna McKinley (Secretary-Treasurer), Terri Osuga (President), Peg Clark (Vice-President). Standing: Kay Ketcham, Janie Hampton, Sandy

Richardson, Kathy Hinshaw, Noel Ernst, Elaine Osborn, Ruth Millett, Marthanee Graves, Linda Lawton and Shelley Teale. Not Shown: Diane Calvert and Anita Parker.

Chesnut

The familiar black-and-white crest even appears on the north wall of the dorm. (For years the men of Chesnut have protested that the symbols on the crest do not stand for what rivals say they do; it's obvious--they are only athletic shorts and sports trophies. Naturally...)

It seems that building a float isn't all hard work.

In the annual basketball game between the Cheerleaders and the Trashmen, Henry Font takes advantage of Mike Taranto's strategic position. But immediately after this picture was taken, Pennye Morrow tickled Mike, who suddenly stood up, causing Henry to sink the ball from about thirty feet in the air.

Seated: Bill Metcalf (President); Standing: Bob Ciccone (Treasurer) and Yank Rowan (Vice-President).

Off-Campus Housing Has Its Privileges

--If Only for 4 Months

Allen House

On the second story of this building Rich Eberst, Scott Nesselrode, Pat DeCicco and Frank Reinow had the life of Riley. They went their separate ways after the first term.

Sunset

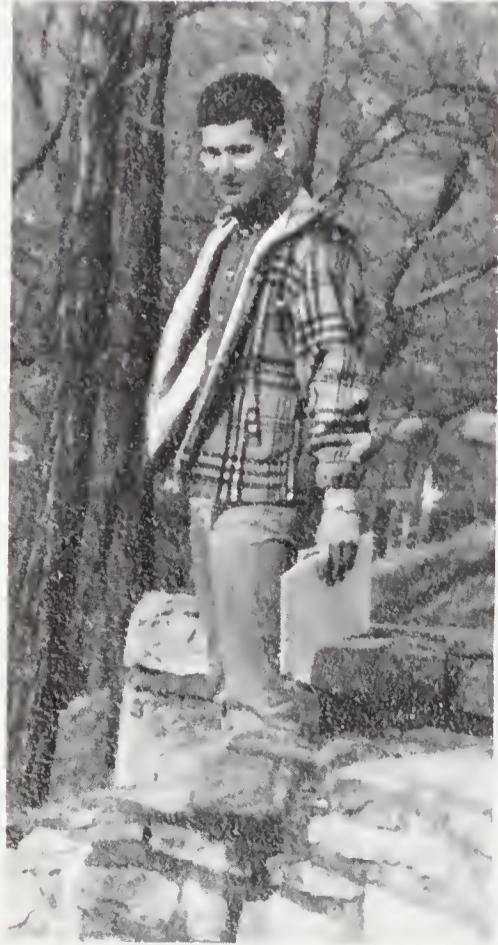

This imposing structure housed several Parkites who were told they would have to move on-campus for the second term. The consensus of opinion of the Sunset residents seemed to be that it was a good thing while it lasted.

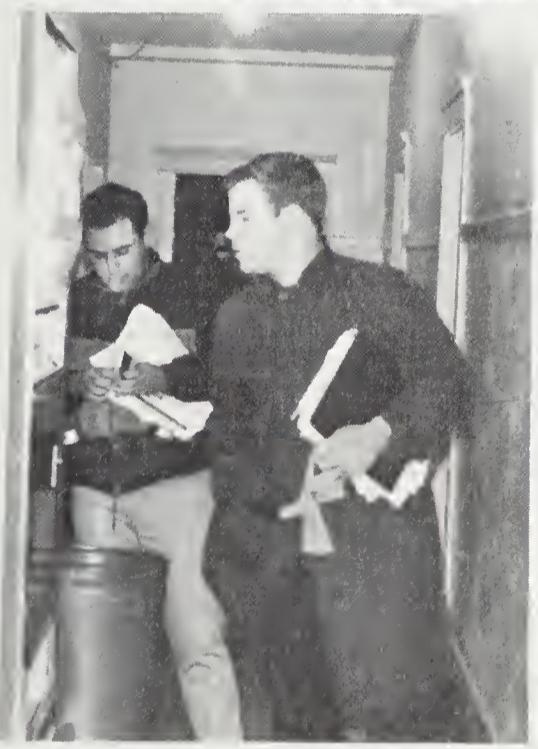

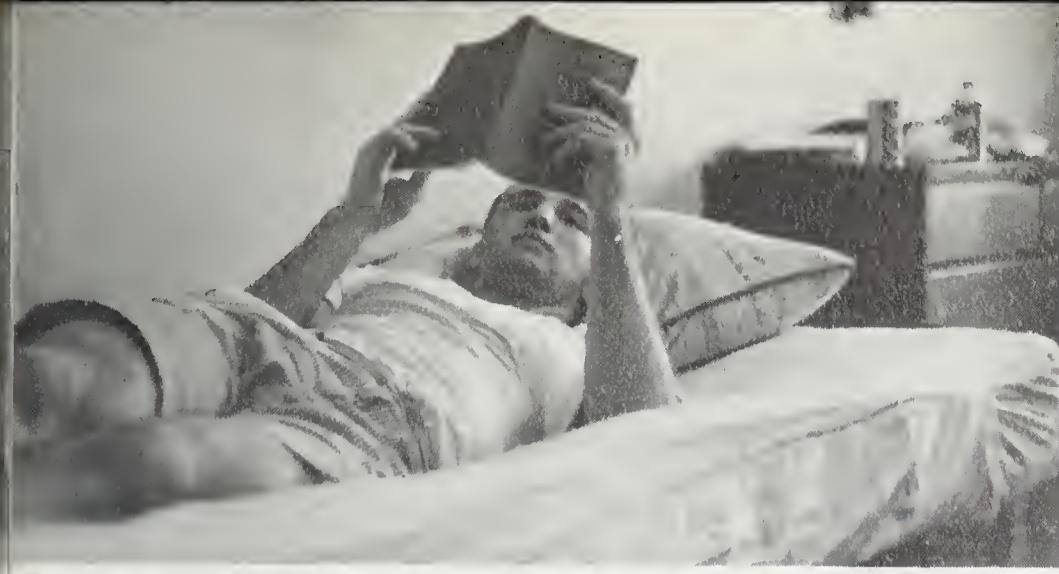

Parkville Hall

In spite of administrative attempts to lend some measure of elegance to this dorm, it was always known as the Elementary School. Just over a dozen men resided there in the classrooms which were vacant during the second term.

Debate Team

Dr. Hamilton looks over an award given to Don Sherr and Jim Moore for their performance in a debate contest.

After about twenty years of inactivity, debate flourished again at Park. This year's squad participated in six tournaments, having grown in size from a group of one (Pete Francis) to a present squad of eight. In addition to those pictured here, other debaters were: Ed Oberlander, Larry Edelstein, Bob Heath and Bill Metcalf.

Del Fidanque won a finalist spot and trophy for his reading of Selected War Poems at the annual Oral Interpretation Festival at William Jewell College.

Activities

SUDC Carnival

At the Hermits' booth you could throw a pie in the face of your favorite "Man with the Footprint," but in this case it looks as if Phil Lainhart (Chesnut) will be the recipient.

"Step right up, you suckers, and try your luck at putting the ball in the basket!" Think it was easy? You should have tried it!

The Park Family Club served up hot dogs for starving Carnival-goers...After that skimpy sack-lunch we got at 5:00, we should have been hungry!

"I now pronounce you..." At the OAC Marryin' Sam booth the strangest things happened.

and Auction

"H-h-h-e-e-e-l-l-p-p-p-l!"

At the Auction this year the bids totaled over $3,000 the highest bid being $130 for a lobster dinner for six at Dr. Schurr's home.

Glenn Green, SUDC Chairman, explains the purpose of the Carnival and Auction to a restless, eager crowd.

"Hula Boys' Bull's Eye" sponsored by LLC.

Linda Morrow proudly displays the prize the BLB's received for being the "Campus Good-Guys."

"Seventeen! Who'll make it eighteen?"

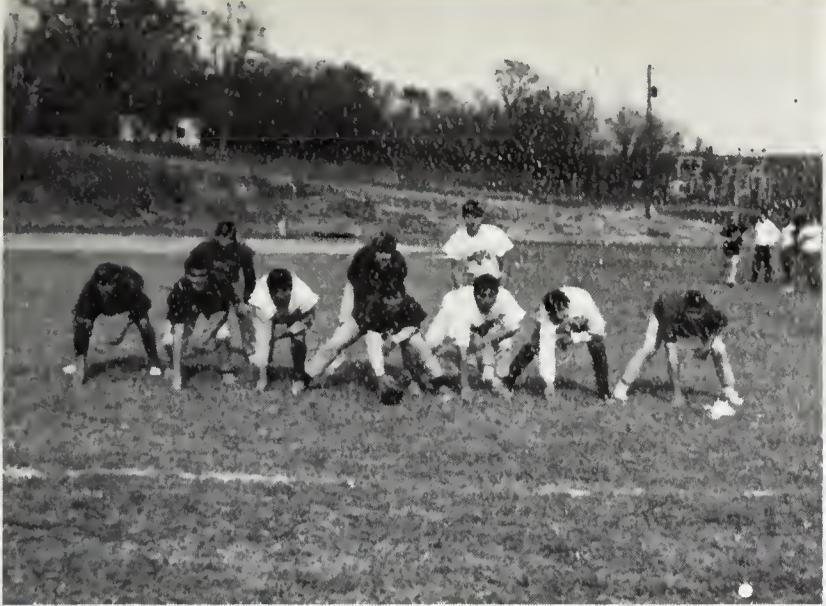

Football Intramurals

Bring out Club and Dorm Spirit

This year the OAC's took the championship again, and Chesnut once again finished second. OAC finished first in offensive and defensive categories, with Chesnut second. The final standings were:

Team	Won	Lost
OAC	9	1
Chesnut	7	3
PCC	6	4
Hermits	4	6
LLC	4	6
ACC	0	10

Park Ushers in “The Changing Times”

SUC-Woodward
Party at Melody
Farm

Anita Parker
and Lee Salam, Park's talented folk duo.

From the Vanguard: Dick
Bradley and Judy
Johnston.

The Dionysian Grape Stompers at the LLC concert.

One highlight of the SUC's show was Mort and Linda, known for their unusual style of folk.

Dave Hamil sings for SUC's concert in the chapel.

This year Park went
for folk in a big way,
having presented concerts under the auspices of the LLC's and the SUC.

Folk Galore!

*We'll Always Remember Those Informal Moments
When we tried to eat...*

and danced...

And walked and ran...

and jumped...

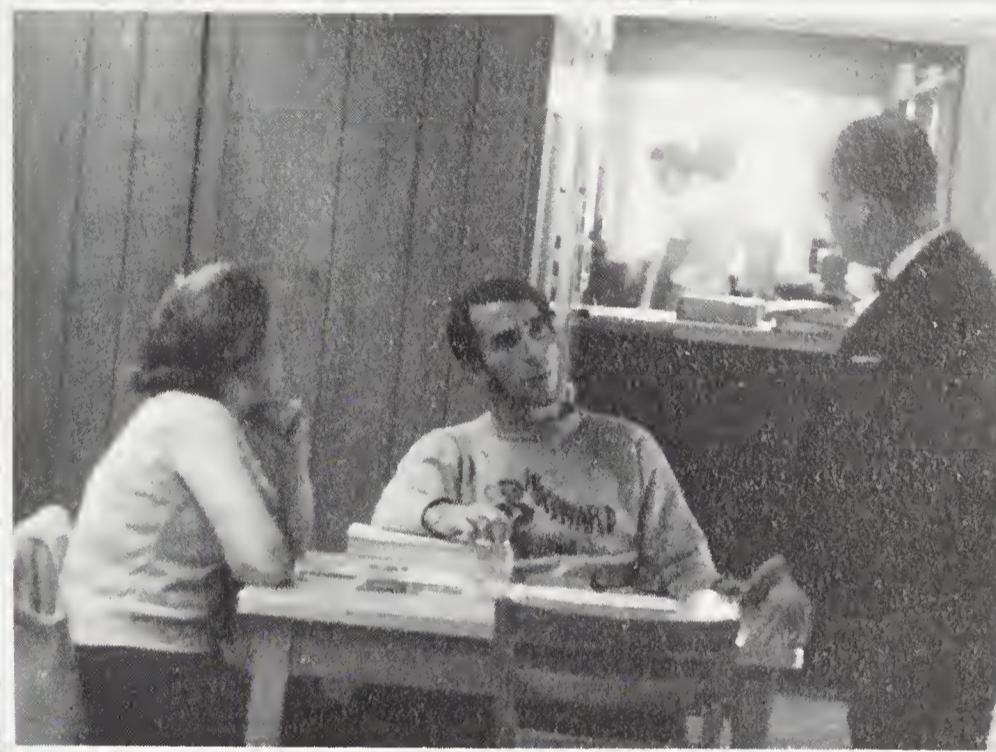

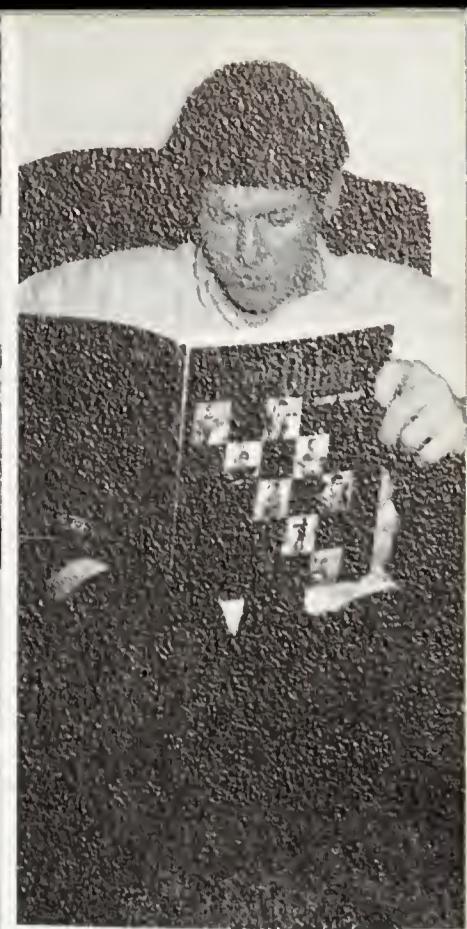

and watched and waited...

Killing time was important, too...

They say a picture's worth a thousand words...

And how could we forget these faces?...

We hope you have enjoyed paging through your 1967 NARVA, and we trust you'll enjoy it even further in the years to come. We devoted many, many hours to its planning and completion, but without

Keith Allerton
Michael B. Best
Sam Boyer
Roger Brown
Mr. Bob Corbett
Larry Edelstein
Jayne Humbert
Kay Ketcham
Phil Lainhart

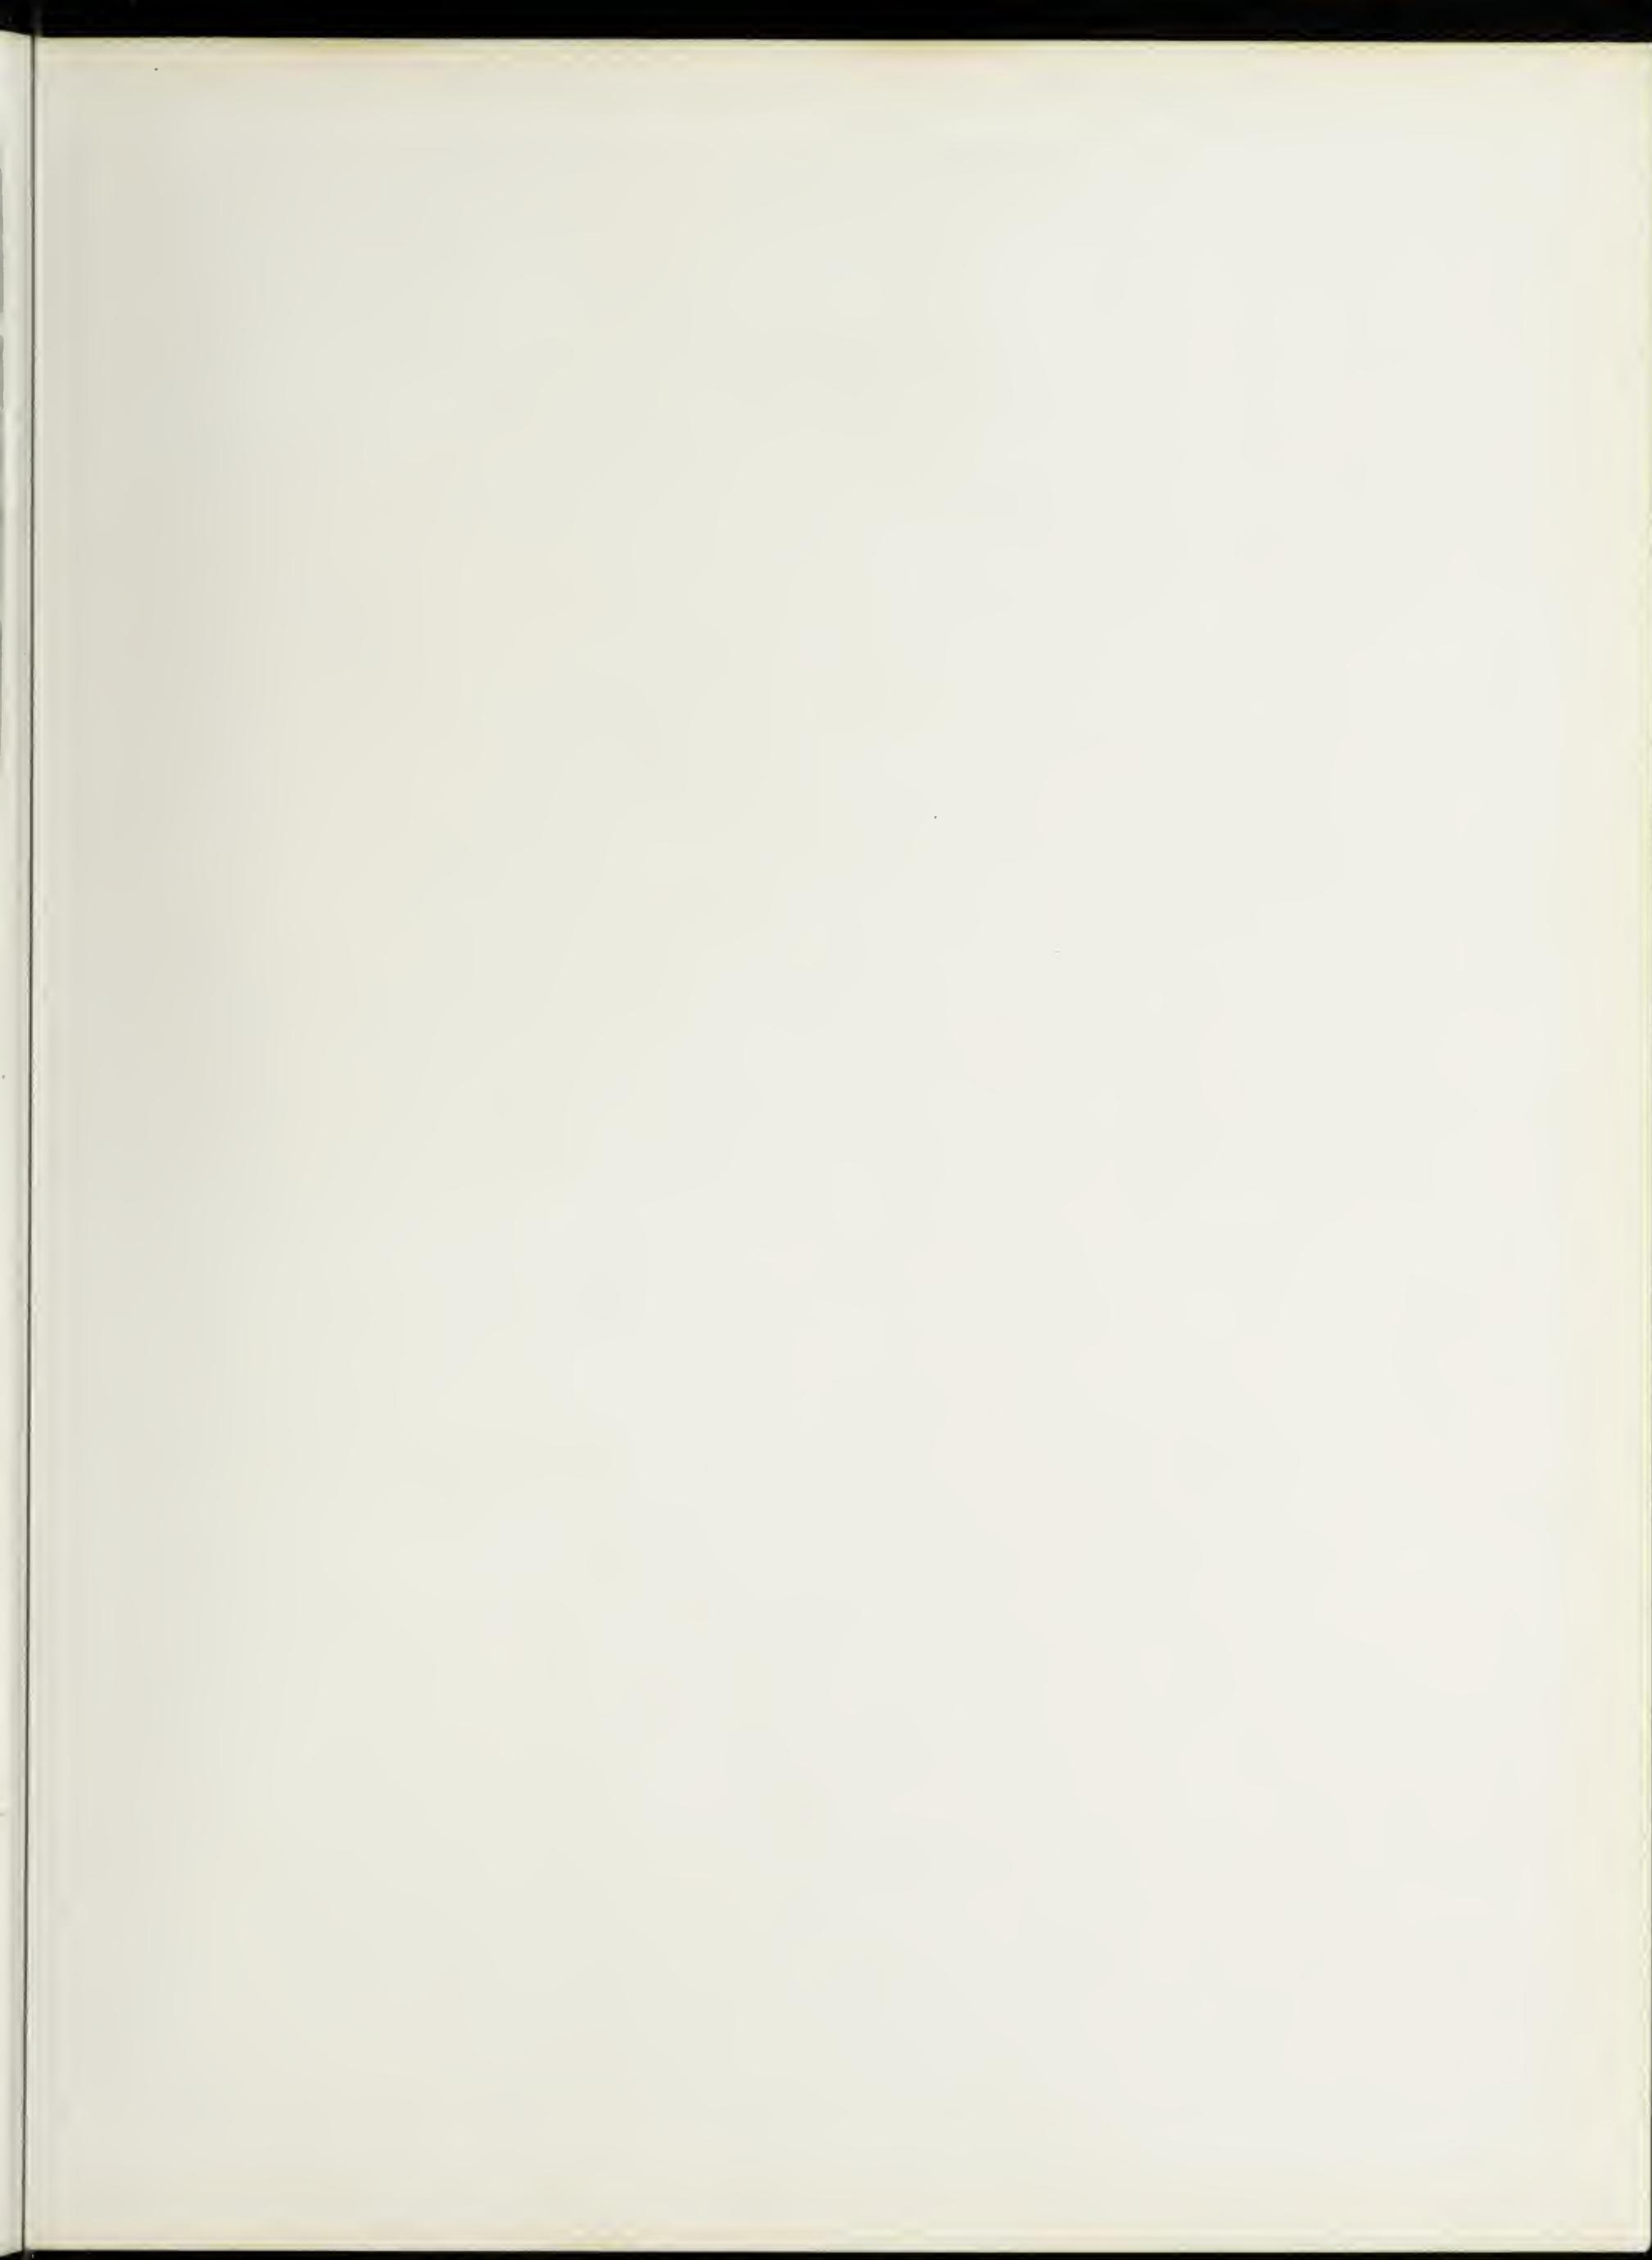

And very special thanks to Mr. Pat Penniston, of Walsworth Publishing Company, for the many hours he spent advising us on every aspect of the NARVA task.

the help of a great number of people we never would have done the job. We would especially like to thank the following Parkites for their time and assistance:

Mr. Allen Larson
